

2013 Building A Grad Nation - In The News

Thus far, our 2013 Annual Update has been covered from Alabama to Alaska by a variety of news outlets including the National Associated Press, Reuters and more than 100 television stations nationwide.

- Education Week - Some States on Pace to Hit 90 Percent High School Grad. Rate by 2020
- Huffington Post - High School Graduation Rate In U.S. On Pace To Reach 90 Percent By 2020: Powell Report
- Memphis Commercial Appeal - Tennessee schools graduation gains largest in the nation
- Milwaukee Journal- Sentinel - Graduation gaps imperil dropout progress
- National Associated Press - Report: High School Dropouts Cost Economy Billions

AP story picked up by:

- Arizona Central
  - Boston Herald
  - Columbus Post Dispatch
  - KVOA
  - Miami Herald
  - New Jersey Herald
  - New York Post
  - San Francisco Chronicle
  - San Jose Mercury News
  - Syracuse Post Standard
-
- National Journal - Fewer Dropouts, but Blacks, Hispanics, Still Lag: Report
  - National Reuters - High school graduation rate up sharply, but red flags abound
  - NBC WAGT - High School Graduation Rates on the Rise
  - PBS NewsHour - New Report Highlights U.S. Graduation Gains, Decline in 'Dropout Factories'

- Tennessean - TN leads the way as U.S. improves high school graduation rates
- Univision - Desercion escolar cuesta millones en EEUU
- Washington Monthly - United States on Track to Graduate 90 Percent of High School Students by 2020
- White House Daily Press Briefing - Briefing by White House Press Secretary Jay Carney and Secretary of Education Arne Duncan
- Youngstown Vindicator- Graduation gaps a problem